Many Halloween Parties Furnish Entertainment for Young and Old. Goings and Comings of Society in Various Towns.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BEDFORD CITY, Va., October 31.—Chas. L. Mosby, superintendent of the Elks National Home, tendered the residents of the home a very delightful entertainment on Monday evening in honor of the birthday anniversaries of several of the brother Elks, and also to present the awards to the winners in the billiard tournament, which closed on October 22.

There were, besides the residents of the home, a large number of special guests from the town.
Mr. Mosby conducted the opening exercises and introduced E. H. Ritter, the exalted ruler of the home lodge, as master of ceremonies who delivered the principal address of the occasion. Mr. Ritter presented Daniel Partridge, ex-champion amateur billiard player of Colorado, now of the home, who was promoter and referee of the tournament. Mr. Partridge presented in appropriate style the awards as follows: Mr. Shaft first prize for largest number of games won, a handsome bath robe; Mr. Dix, second prize, a valuable pipe; Mr. Ritter, third prize, for highest average, a gold-mounted amber-stem pipe; Mr. Dennis, fourth prize, a dozen handkerchiefs; Mr. Perry, fifth prize, a pocket watch.
Besides this, there was music by the Belmont Orchestra and the Bedford City Orchestra, the former with one exception composed of young women, the latter of young men. Solo selections by Miss Jones and Irvin Guy, and vocal numbers by Mrs. Lily James, Vandeville stunts, recitations and short addresses were given by Messrs. Collins, Almslie, Nesbit, Magruder and others.
Under the gracious supervision of Mr. Mosby, very tempting refreshments were served, and the varied program of entertainment concluded with an informal dance.

We Purchased a Big Stock of Suitings and Coatings from an Overstocked Mill and Had Them Made Up Into

Superb Suits and Coats

If Bought in the Ordinary Way They Would Sell for $27 and $22.50

One of the country's largest manufacturers of Woolen Suitings and Coatings found himself heavily overstocked with short length pieces, which he was glad to sell to us at a mere fraction of the regular worth. We bought his entire stock, and found a prominent suit and coat maker who felt the effects of the warm weather of the past season, and was glad to make up the suits and coats at less than cost in order that he might keep his skilled workmen busy and not disrupt the organization which had been the cause of his success.

THESE SUITS are made according to our own specifications, and embody the best of styles and workmanship; made of serges, broadcloths, gabardines, poplins and all-wool chevots, in the latest and best colorings. Styles feature both long Redingote and short model coats, with long tunic and yoke pleated skirts, nicely trimmed with plush at collars and cuffs. Worth $20-$22.50, special $12.50.
